

CLANCY MAY BE U. S. MARSHAL

President Said To Be Ready to Fill Federal Post Here
This Month.

PETTY URGED FOR DISTRICT COURT

About 40 Others in Field to Succeed Judge Holt—Eastmond May Be Surveyor.

President Wilson has taken up the active consideration of three of the federal appointments to be made in this city, it was learned yesterday. Before the end of this month it is likely that independent Democrats of his selection will be filling the offices of United States Marshal, at $5,000 a year; Surveyor of the Port, at the same salary, and United States District Judge to succeed Judge George C. Holt, who retired on January 1.

There has been considerable rumbling because of the delay in handing out the choice patronage. Some of the delay has been due to the fact that the President's attention has been centered on the Mexican affair. Then there has been a deluge of suggestions for every place.

James M. Clancy, warden of Sing Sing, has the call on the appointment as United States Marshal. It is understood. The anti-Tammany men urging him point to the fact that he has been allied with the anti-Tammany forces in the Bronx and has shown his ability in the work he has done at the state prison.

Rose Williams, Democratic leader of the 12th Assembly District, but one of the "original" Wilson men, is also a candidate for the place, which is now held by William Henkel, Republican leader of the 12th district. His term expired on January 1.

John E. Eastmond has the inside track on the office of Surveyor, to succeed General Nelson H. Henry, Republican, whose term will expire before the end of the month. It is said that Eastmond would suit Collector Maloney, who has general supervision over the office. He is said also to have the backing of William J. Bryan.

Charles H. Fuller, former State Senator from Brooklyn, also a candidate for Surveyor, has the active support of his brother-in-law, Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce.

Forty or fifty different names have been suggested to the President for U. S. District Judge, to succeed Judge Holt. The men who are leading in the race right now are Robert Davidson Petty and Augustus N. Hand, of 49 Wall st. President Wilson is said to have remarked to a man suggesting another name: "What's the matter with Petty for the place?"

Mr. Petty was graduated from Princeton, class of '82, and was a classmate of William Church Osborn, chairman of the Democratic State Committee. He is dean of the New York Law School and formerly was a member of the firm of Lamb & Petty.

It was learned that Frank V. S. Oliver, secretary to Senator O'Connor, had been considered for Commissioner of Immigration. The President, however, has decided not to fill the place at present.

Biron Art Sale in Paris.

(By Cable to The Tribune.)
Paris, June 8.—At the auction sale of the Biron collection of drawings to-day four sketches by Fragonard realized $15,000 and six drawings by Ingres $16,400.

Our Queensboro Bridge Celebration Sale

—recalls the opening to traffic in 1909 of one of the greatest cantilever bridges in the world. We celebrate this great and successful undertaking in a manner worthy of its importance.

After months of careful preparation, every section of every department of the enormous Bloomingdale store offers special values—Big Values—in reasonable merchandise.

No matter what you want, you may be practically certain that Bloomingdale's has it—and in this special Queensboro Sale it is more than likely to be offered at a far lower price than ever before, either here or elsewhere.

ALL CARS TRANSFER TO
"THE HOME OF THE FUTURE"
BLOOMINGDALE'S
86th to 90th St. Lex. to 3d Av.

52ND YEAR T.M. STEWART 438-442 WEST 51ST ST. RUGS AND CARPET CLEANSING in Fire-Proof Building.

FIRE PROOF STORAGE
for Household Goods.
Founded in 1863
TELEPHONE
5567 COLUMBUS

NOTION PICTURE EXPO NOW OPEN 50c GRAND CENTRAL PALACE JUNE 8-13

Every Package
TIGHTLY SEALED
WRIGLEYS
SPEARMINT
PERFECT GUM

CHEW IT AFTER EVERY MEAL

HAD $6,200: DISAPPEARED

Contractor's Mother Fears
Black Hand Murdered Him.

The disappearance of Luigi Juliano, while he had $6,200 with him, was reported yesterday by his mother, Juliano, though only twenty-three years old, is a prosperous contractor at Dobbs Ferry, Monday he went to a bank at Yonkers and then started alone in his automobile for Millville, where he is building a road and getting out the foundation for a church.

His mother believes that Black Handers, knowing his custom of paying his men on Mondays, lay in wait for him. She fears the robbers murdered him and either threw his body into the river or hid it in the woods in the upper part of Westchester County.

The police have sent out a general alarm. They think Juliano may be held for ransom.

$100,000 GIFT FOR YALE

Graduate Who Gives Money
Asks Name Be Withheld.

New Haven, Conn., June 9.—Announcement was made to-day of a provisional gift of $100,000 to the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale by a graduate of the school whose name is withheld. The gift is contingent upon the securing of an additional $100,000; the money to be used for the development of a graduate course of one year, and, if possible, two years, as an addition to the present undergraduate course in preparation for business and business administration.

Arthur Kenyon Rogers, professor of philosophy at the University of Missouri, has accepted a call to Yale. He will take the place of Professor William E. Hoekling, who goes to Harvard.

T. R. SILENT ON PINCHOTS ATTACK

Pinchot Letter Fails to Rouse
the Moose Leader—More Complaints.

Amos R. E. Pinchot, who has sent a 4,000-word denunciation of George W. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the Progressive party, to all the members of the national committee and other prominent members of the party, has received no reply from Joseph M. Roosevelt, or from Senator Joseph M. Dixon, chairman of the national committee. It was said yesterday, however, that Mr. Pinchot, whose opposition to Mr. Perkins has been known for some time, had a long talk with Colonel Roosevelt before he started for South America last fall, and the Colonel did not agree with him that the head of the harvester combine was a menace to the party.

Former Governor Stubbs of Kansas, William Allen White, George L. Record, of New Jersey, and Senator Miles Polinder are said to be in hearty accord with the right that Mr. Pinchot has started to get Mr. Perkins out of the Progressive party. Senator Polinder has been mentioned as a possible successor as chairman of the executive committee.

No notice of the Pinchot attack has been taken by Mr. Perkins, who does not intend to resign his post. He has the support of a majority of the members of the committee, and others who are not in sympathy with him do not believe that he should be made an issue until after the coming campaign.

The three points that Mr. Pinchot makes against Mr. Perkins are:

"That he is an out and out corporation man and has tried to force a pro-trust policy upon the Progressive party.
That he suppressed an anti-trust plank that was adopted by the first convention of the party before the copies were handed to the newspapers.
That he has been a consistent opponent of labor, in spite of his professions, and has alienated or kept away from the party many labor votes that otherwise would go to the Progressive party."

WEST POINT '89 DINES

Class Takes a Week to Celebrate Its 25th Reunion.

West Point's class of '89 began a week's celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary last night with a private dinner at the Hotel Astor. Members of the class, army officers who had not seen one another in twenty-five years, met again at the dinner, some coming from as far as Guatemala to be present.

To-day the class goes to West Point and the wives and families will not go along. Neither will newspaper correspondents be allowed to be present at the banquet in the evening, because there will be speeches that will tell exactly what the army thinks of the war situation.

Those present at the dinner last night were Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. W. G. Haan, Major and Mrs. Normoyle, Colonel Chesler Harding, Captain and Mrs. Piper, Colonel Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey, Major and Mrs. Crawford, Major Lee, Major and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Schermerhorn, Colonel Barrett, Don Harris, Colonel Kenyon, Colonel Jordan, Colonel Wood, Colonel Barrow, Major Cole and Colonel Blake.

W. H. PAGE 'REVIEWS' BOOTH'S 'SOLDIERS'

Ambassador Witnesses March Past in London and Receives a Delegation.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]
London, June 9.—Bathed in their desire to visit the embassy in a body only by limitations of space, seven hundred American Salvationists paraded up and down Victoria st. to-day and were reviewed by Ambassador Page from the embassy windows.

There were two bands in the procession and the sidewalks were crowded, joy being general over the crimson sashes worn by all the American delegates to the Salvation Army congress. Adjutant Baynes, of Pittsburgh, added to the hilarity of the spectators by wearing a complete Uncle Sam's costume, even to the goatee. Ambassador Page, bowing and smiling, remained for twenty minutes at the window. The embassy secretaries had had a hard time convincing the Salvationists that there was not room enough for seven hundred persons. The delegates finally appointed a deputation of twenty-five, headed by Miss Eva Booth, and these shook hands with Mr. Page and heard him speak a brief welcome, the bands playing loudly outside. All day long confusion reigned at the embassy.

Six Mexican War "Vets" Meet.

Chillicothe, Ohio, June 9.—Of the thousands of soldiers who crossed the plains of Mexico with General Taylor and General Scott, hundreds of whom were from Ohio, only six were here to-day to effect the national reunion of survivors of the war with Mexico.

DEAD MAN BLAMED IN "FRAME-UP" CASE

Witnesses for Schwitofsky
Assail Reputation of Suicide.

LAWYERS IN CLASH AT PAROLE INQUIRY

Warden Hanley Tells of Alleged Hounding of Prisoner in Tombs.

The inquiry by the State Board of Parole into the case of Alfred Schwitofsky, who asserts that his twenty-year sentence to Sing Sing is the result of a "frame-up," was characterized yesterday by clashes between James A. Delehanty, Assistant District Attorney, and Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the prisoner. The reputation of Theodore B. Dale, on whose complaint Schwitofsky was convicted in 1911, was assailed, but no witness was able to tell just why or how Dale testified falsely against Schwitofsky.

Dale died by his own hand while charges were pending against him. Before committing suicide he had told acquaintances that the Schwitofsky case weighed on his conscience, and that he would die before submitting to cross-examination. According to his housekeeper, Mildred Mosey, a negro, Schwitofsky was not the only youth Dale had sent to prison, although he always referred to Schwitofsky as "the twenty-year boy."

Her employer had refused to repay money he had borrowed from her, Mrs. Mosey asserted, saying that he had paid $20,000 for "fixing up" boys and was hard up. He had enlisted her, she said, in an attempt to send a young man named "Jack" Young to prison, telling her that she must testify to seeing Young snatch a pin from his scarf. Magistrate Freschi, however, reversed the positions of Dale and Young, and it was Young's case against him was pending that Dale committed suicide.

A stenographer formerly employed by Bernard H. Sander, Dale's attorney, told of conversations with Dale in which he had said that he committed perjury in the Schwitofsky case.

Warden Hanley of the Tombs told of an attempt made by Detectives Kinsler and Duggan, who are accused by Schwitofsky of hounding him, to have the prisoner identified as a burglar in 1908 when he was arrested for carrying a revolver. The woman brought in by the detectives, Warden Hanley said, first picked out the wrong man and then, after a conversation with the detectives, returned and picked out Schwitofsky. He regarded the whole proceeding as irregular. Warden Hanley said, and made a note to that effect in the identification book.

Schwitofsky himself repeated his story under cross-examination by Mr. Delehanty. At the close of the hearing he was visited by his wife, who smiled through her tears, confident that he would gain his release.

Mr. Delehanty asked Superintendent of Prisons John E. Riley, chairman of the board, if he should call Kinsler and Duggan and other policemen whom he had at the hearing. They were most anxious to testify, Mr. Delehanty said, but he did not wish to take up time unnecessarily. He reminded the board that the District Attorney had already had ten years clipped from Schwitofsky's sentence and was anxious to bring out the whole truth.

"For months the District Attorney put every possible obstacle in the way of this investigation," said Mr. Untermyer.

"I have no doubt," said Superintendent Riley, seeking to make peace, "that if the District Attorney thought this man innocent of the second crime as well as the first he would recommend his discharge."
"He would do nothing of the kind," said Mr. Untermyer.

"That," said Mr. Delehanty, "is an insult to the District Attorney." It is inferred that the District Attorney would willfully and knowingly keep an innocent man in prison.

"I simply meant," said Mr. Untermyer, "that his office was biased in this case."

$3,000,000 TO RELATIVES

Will of Miss J. J. Wendell Disposes of New York Property.

According to the will of the late Miss Josephine J. Wendell, a resident of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, which was filed in the Surrogate's office at White Plains yesterday, an estate estimated at nearly three million dollars is divided between the decedent's brothers and sisters.

One of the principal gifts is the property condemned by the Hudson & Manhattan Railroad Company for its terminal, which is left in trust for Augusta Wendell.

Other bequests follow: To John G. Wendell, property at 69 Washington st., $1 Division st., 237 West Broadway and 15 Essex st.; to Mary E. A. Wendell, property in 51st st., one-half interest in 1 Beaver st., one-half interest in 45 Grand st. and property at Quogue, Long Island; to Rebecca A. D. Wendell Swope, 255 Centre st., 322 East Third av. and one-half interest in 35 and 37 Canal st.; to Ella Von E. Wendell, property in 18th st. and 35 Grand st.; to Georgiana G. R. Wendell, 47 West 63d st. and 49 Day st.

COLONEL STEINMETZ DEAD

Veteran Succumbs at Waldorf,
After Brief Illness.

Colonel Martin Van Buren Steinmetz, a veteran of the Civil War, died yesterday, after a brief illness, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, where he had lived for the last twenty years. He was noted for gentility and his kind heart.

The colonel was wounded in both legs at the battle of Gettysburg, and when he was placed on the operating table he refused to take chloroform. At the end of the war he returned to his home, in Lebanon, Penn.

CHARLES H. BUEHL.

JEWEL EXPERT GONE; POLICE SEND ALARM

C. H. Buehl, of Maiden Lane
House, Missing Five Days,
Wore Valuable Diamonds.

A general alarm for Charles H. Buehl, jewel expert for the firm of Hammel, Riglander & Co., 47 Maiden Lane, was sent out yesterday from Police Headquarters. Buehl, who is thirty-eight years old and has rooms at 116 West 17th st., disappeared from his home last Thursday night. He wore a six stone diamond ring, a valuable watch and a diamond studded fob. He also carried a considerable sum of money.

Friday morning somebody called up Hammel, Riglander & Co. and delivered this message:

"This is a long distance call. Mr. Buehl has met with an accident."
The voice was not that of the missing man and the telephone company has been unable to trace the call. When Buehl left his apartment Thursday night he said he was going for a walk. He has a sister living in Poughkeepsie.

His employers say that he had no bad habits. His only weakness, they assert, was an indulgence in a lavish display of jewelry. Buehl is described as 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighed 150 pounds. His friends have made fruitless efforts to find him in the hospitals and morgues. The theory is advanced that he has been the victim of thugs.

9 OF POLK'S MEN OUT ARE KNOWN

All Are Organization Democrats,
Seven of Them Tammany Men
—More Soon to Retire.

Although no announcement was made by Corporation Counsel Polk yesterday, the names of nine organization Democrats who have resigned from the Law Department in the reorganization now going on were learned. Seven are Tammany men, three of them from the 15th Assembly District, where the anti-Tammany Democrats are going to make a fight against the leadership of James Ahearn. Two of the nine are members of the McCoey organization, in Brooklyn.

Dudley Field Malone, Collector of the Port, who since the first of the year has been after Mayor Mitchell to clean all the regular organization Democrats out of the city service, was in conference with him and with Corporation Counsel Polk yesterday.

Of the assistant corporation counsels whose resignations have been accepted the following are Tammany men: Isaac Phillips, of 329 West 190th st., in the 31st Assembly District, appointed June, 1908; salary, $3,000; Ashton Parker, former Assemblyman, of 329 West 53th st., 15th District, April, 1912; $3,000; Frank J. Connor, 323 Riverside Drive, 19th District, January, 1907; $3,000; Isaac F. Cohen, 840 West End av., 19th District, December, 1912; $4,000; Patrick F. Cotter, 327 West 190th st., 19th District, October, 1912; $3,000; Patrick J. Walsh, 246 East 19th st., 12th District, June, 1912; $3,000; John F. Sheehy, 1274 Lexington av., 19th District, November, 1911; $3,000.

The McCoey men who have fallen are: William R. Wilson, 172 East 53d st., Brooklyn; September, 1912; $4,500; and Lindsay Bourke, 206 Barbey st.; June, 1908; $5,000.

All these resignations are to take effect on July 31. Each man gets a month's vacation.

Among those who are certain to go is James D. Bell, head of the Brooklyn office at $10,000 a year. He is chairman of the Kings County general committee. There is also a report that Herman Stiefel, head of the Bureau for the Collection of Penalties, at $6,000 a year, will retire.

Electric Train Extension.

New Haven, Conn., June 9.—The first electric engine to be run through from Stamford to this city since the electrification of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad was extended from the Stamford zone, arrived to-day, J. H. Huston, W. S. Murray and C. L. Bardo, general manager, met the engine.

BOUCK WHITE'S FOES SEEK HIS RELEASE

His Counsel Presents Appeal from Directors of Rockefeller Church.

JANE EST AGAIN SENT TO BLACKWELL'S

Fiery I. W. W. Woman Interrupts
Meeting of Peace Forum and Tries Short Arm Jab.

Bouck White, who was sentenced to six months in jail for creating a disturbance in John D. Rockefeller's Calvary Baptist Church, may get his freedom within a day or two. White, who is in the Queens County jail, has served less than a month of his sentence.

The arguments on White's appeal were to have been heard yesterday before Judge Malone in General Sessions. Miss Bertha Rembaugh, counsel for White, changed the programme by producing a letter from the Rev. Cornelius Woolfkin, of Calvary, stating that the church directors believed he had received sufficient punishment. The letter recommended immediate release.

At the suggestion of Judge Malone, Miss Rembaugh agreed to ask Magistrate Campbell, who sentenced White, to advocate clemency. Magistrate Campbell's opinion, the court declared, would carry great weight.

Adjournment was taken to 3 o'clock this afternoon, when former Assistant District Attorney James W. Osborne will appear for White, if it is necessary to argue the appeal.

Fiery Jane Est, leader, with Frank Tannenbaum, of the I. W. W., raid on the Church of St. Alphonsus, the night of March 4, and single handed disrupter of the services in Dr. Parkhurst's church on April 12, yesterday afternoon interrupted Frank Urban, of the International Peace Forum, who was conducting a meeting at Madison av. and 24th st., demanding the right to explain to the crowd exactly where Urban was in error. Urban invited Miss Est to "go and get a meeting of her own."

Miss Est responded with the athletic argument of a short arm jab, which Urban neatly eluded. The Peace Forum man then summoned a policeman and Miss Est was soon arraigned before Lieutenant Powers in the East 22d st. station.

She and the lieutenant staged a small reunion, because it was to the same station that Miss Est was consigned after the Parkhurst uprisings, which gave her a thirty-day sentence. Formalities concluded, Miss Est was taken to the Essex Market court, where Magistrate Campbell, who does not pretend to understand philosophy and sociology, gave Miss Est three months on Blackwell's Island.

Miss Est conducted her own defence. She said that she was thirty-six years of age and had no home.

NEW TRIAL FOR GRUTZ, FIREBUG

Court Finds Reversible Error in Conviction for Arson.

Albany, June 9.—A new trial was granted to George Grutz, an alleged firebug, under sentence for arson, by the Court of Appeals to-day.

Grutz, an insurance broker, was indicted with Isidor Stein and Sam Gold for burning Gold's house in New York City. The fire was said to have been the result of a conspiracy to obtain insurance money. Stein and Gold testified against Grutz and Stein confessed setting fire to sixty buildings.

The court held that the admission of evidence regarding other fires than the one for which Grutz was indicted was reversible error.

News item—Ten dead, eight hurt in day's auto accident toll.

Above is a cartoon by Weed from the New York Tribune which emphasizes the importance of the following.

Motorists

1. Be Considerate
2. Go Slow
3. Stop
4. Use Tire Chains on Wet or Slippery Pavements

(a) Passing Children (c) Approaching Crossings
(b) Passing Vehicles (d) Around Corners
(a) At Railroad Crossings
(b) Behind Street Cars Taking on or Discharging Passengers

Better be Safe Than Sorry.
Citizens are requested to co-operate with us by sending in the number of any automobile involved in any accident witnessed by them, giving their name address and telephone number.

Educational Campaign SAFETY FIRST SOCIETY

Ogden L. Mills, Pres.
501 FIFTH AVENUE NEW YORK

LAST CHANCE DON'T HESITATE! CLOSING JUNE 13--

The New York Tribune's Special Offer of Col. Roosevelt's Own Story of His Life

For ONE COUPON
and 98 CENTS

"The One Book that should be in every American Home"

Pacifying to a degree, vital, electric, from the first page to the last, every one who opens this book reads on with intense and increasing interest.
Illustrating the possibilities of American life, it is impossible to find anything in literature surpassing, or, for that matter, equalling, this record of experiences, reflections and events as our great ex-President saw, thought and lived them.

No man has ever been better qualified by individual equipment and close identification with the nation's public life during recent decades to adequately and picturesquely portray its more important phases. Richly personal and intimate, this book is an American story of events through and through.

Extremely instructive in its running comments on well known men and significant affairs of state, no one can read it without tingling responsively to the inspiration of its noble sentiments and honest convictions marked by the virile ring of sincerity, and all told in terse, easily flowing, readable language.

THE
New York Tribune
154 NASSAU STREET

This coupon and 98 cents cash, presented at The Tribune Office, will entitle the holder to a copy of THEODORE ROOSEVELT An Autobiography. The book, handsomely bound in cloth, with gold stamped decorated portrait cover, consists of 625 large type pages and contains 62 illustrations. We consider ourselves fortunate to be able to offer this book to our readers for a limited time for only 98 cents. Add 17 cents for postage and handling if book is to be mailed.